

Freightliner Command Unit

Bence

- Freightliner chassis with Mercedes transmission
- Full solar array , KA band satellite connectivity to internet
- VOIP(Voice Over Internet Protocol)
- Creates its own (4G) network bubble with a range of 2km around the vehicle providing up to 1000Mbps wireless information transfer
- All on-board systems 12volt for simple and effective resilience
- 12V battery bank with solar assistance to operate for over 8 hours without mains power
- 20kW diesel generator
- Middle East compatible air conditioning system operable to over 50 degrees centigrade
- Secure N£ cloud-based server technology
- The latest Vector Command and Control software
- Incident room with two fully functional M1 tested operator seats
- Command briefing room with two 42" touch screens and a 40" touch screen briefing table
- Four hydraulic levelling legs
- Composite body with high density insulation and safari roof
- Four triple glazed windows with privacy glass and integral blinds

